IMPORT DUTIES

EU blasts U.S. tariffs on Spanish olives as unacceptable

● The European Commission labelled as "unacceptable" yesterday the United States' decision to impose import duties on Spanish olives after an investigation found they were being sold below their fair value and were propped up by subsidies.

"The decision by the United States Department of Commerce to impose unreasonably high and prohibitive duties anti-subsidy and anti-dumping duties on Spanish olives is simply unacceptable," a Commission spokesman said yesterday.
